- i. Being portrayed as a father who did not love his son, and who enjoyed being in war in the face of death more than being with his son;
 - ii. Being portrayed as a “messed up”⁹ soldier whose success was attained only because Plaintiff was foolish and crazy enough to take reckless and uncalculated risks which greatly endangered the lives of Plaintiff and his colleagues;
 - iii. Being portrayed as a “weird” and unstable person who is fascinated with / addicted to the thrill of war and death, who enjoys playing cruel practical jokes on people (ie telling a young child he will chop off his head with a dull knife (for selling him a poor quality DVD movie), after which he tells the child he is “just kidding”; callously ordering an Iraqi civilian to get inside of a car bomb, after which Plaintiff tells the frightened man “I’m kidding”);
- e. The obvious consequence of portraying Plaintiff - an active military member whose military skills and respect from his peers, commanders, and subordinates, are not only essential to Plaintiff’s own military career, but also essential to the continued success of our nation’s military operations - in such a negative and untrue light is that Plaintiff will lose the respect he previously enjoyed amongst his colleagues, and Plaintiff will always have to question whether his fellow soldiers will continue to protect him, whether he will be given regular promotions, and whether soldiers will still follow his leadership.

94. Notwithstanding Defendants’ knowledge of the above, Defendants proceeded with the distribution and publication of both the film and DVD versions of “The Hurt Locker”, said conduct amounting to extreme and outrageous conduct under the circumstances.

95. Defendants’ actions in publishing both the film and DVD versions of “The Hurt Locker”, notwithstanding the above information and knowledge, were and are the proximate cause of Plaintiff’s severe emotional distress related to the release of these movies.

96. Plaintiff’s above referenced severe emotional distress is to the extent that no reasonable could be expected to endure the distress which Plaintiff has endured and continues to endure.

COUNT VI

ACTUAL / INTENTIONAL FRAUD
ALL DEFENDANTS

97. Plaintiff hereby restates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs one through ninety-five (96) as if fully set forth herein.

98. Throughout his embedment with Plaintiff's Army Unit, Defendant BOAL repeatedly represented to the service members, and to Plaintiff in particular, that the purpose of his embedment and reporting activities was to report on the unit's EOD operations, in general.

99. Throughout his embedment, Defendant BOAL never represented he was embedded with Plaintiff's Army Unit for the purpose of flushing out and documenting Plaintiff's personal information, including Plaintiff's name and likeness, photographing and videotaping Plaintiff's name and likeness, or recording Plaintiff's name and likeness, for the ultimate purpose of writing an article or making a major motion film or DVD about the Plaintiff's personal life and likeness.

100. Unbeknownst to Plaintiff, throughout his embedment with Plaintiff's Army unit, Defendant BOAL was in regular contact with Defendant BIGELOW, conveying to her the information he gathered about the Plaintiff and Plaintiff's experiences.

101. Unbeknownst to Plaintiff, the Defendants were likely already in the process of writing a "movie" for their own material and commercial gain, made possible only through the Defendants' exploitation and amusement of a soldier who was risking his life on a daily basis in the theater of war, not just for the protection of his country and the Iraqi citizens, but also for the personal protection of the Defendant BOAL.

102. Even when Defendant BOAL met with Plaintiff and several other soldiers of the 788th in Wisconsin after they arrived home, Defendant BOAL led Plaintiff to believe that

1 Defendant's reporting activities were still for the purpose of writing an article about EOD
2 operations in general.

3 103. Had Defendant BOAL been honest and upfront with Plaintiff about the real purpose
4 and intent of his reporting activities, Plaintiff would have never consented to providing Defendant
5 BOAL with his personal and other information.

6 104. The Defendants' conduct and misrepresentations as referenced above amount to
7 Actual / Intentional Fraud committed against the Plaintiff, in that Defendants' misrepresentations
8 were:
9

- 10 a. Material and false;
11 b. Known by Defendants to be false, or, recklessly made by Defendants without any 12 knowledge of its / their truth as a positive assertion; and
13 c. Made with the intent that Plaintiff should act thereon.

14 105. That Plaintiff acted in reliance on Defendants' misrepresentations by providing 15 Defendant BOAL with his personal and other information.
16

17 106. That as a direct and proximate result of Defendants' Actual / Intentional Fraud,
18 Plaintiff suffered the injuries and damages as more fully described above.

19 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in favor of 20 Plaintiff and against Defendants in an amount in excess of Seventy-Five Thousand ($75,000.00)
21 Dollars, plus costs, interest and attorney fees.

COUNT VII

CONSTRUCTIVE FRAUD / NEGLIGENT MISREPRESENTATION
ALL DEFENDANTS

107. Plaintiff hereby restates and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs one through one hundred five (106) as if fully set forth herein.

108. At all times relevant, Defendants owed to Plaintiff both a common law duty and a contractual duty by virtue of the express and implied agreements entered into between BOAL / PLAYBOY and the United States, and between BOAL/PLAYBOY and Plaintiff, to carefully and reasonably carry out any publications regarding the Plaintiff.

109. Included within this ordinary duty of care is the duty and responsibility of Defendants to fully and accurately represent to Plaintiff the full purpose and full intended use of any information or likeness provided by Plaintiff to Defendants.

110. Because Defendants never represented to Plaintiff, prior to or during the gathering and taking of Plaintiff's information, that the full purpose and intended use was not for an article about EOD operations in general, but for a sensationalized story and major motion picture centered around and about the Plaintiff's personal information and likeness, Defendants' conduct amounted to a negligent misrepresentation on which Plaintiff justifiably relied, to his detriment, as explained above.

111. That as a direct and proximate result of Defendants' Constructive Fraud / Negligent Misrepresentation, Plaintiff suffered the injuries and damages as more fully described above.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests that this Honorable Court enter a Judgment in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendants in an amount in excess of Seventy-Five Thousand ($75,000.00) Dollars, plus costs, interest and attorney fees.

03/23/2011	119	IN CHAMBERS ORDER GRANTING PRO HAC VICE APPLICATION by Judge Jacqueline H. Nguyen: granting 100 Application to Appear Pro Hac Vice by Attorney Geoffrey Nels Fieger on behalf of Plaintiff Sgt. Jeffrey S. Sarver, designating Eric Jackson as local counsel. The Court has considered the papers filed by both parties and deems the matter appropriate for decision without oral argument. Mr. Fieger is a member in good standing and eligible to practice before the Michigan, Florida, and Arizona state bars. (Application at 2.) Furthermore, the evidence produced by Defendant falls short of showing that Mr. Fieger lacks good moral character or is in any way professionally unfit for admission to this Court. Finally, Plaintiff is entitled to his counsel of choice and Mr. Fieger has been involved in this litigation for more than a year. (Response at 2.) Therefore, the Application is GRANTED. Counsel are reminded that the Court expects the highest level of civility and professionalism from counsel. Further, counsel should be thoroughly familiar with the Local Rules of this district.
